Temple Wedding For Nola Atwood And David Brandley

A profusion of peonies made a beautiful setting for the wedding reception held following the temple marriage of Nola, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Atwood, to David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Brandley.

The radiant bride wore a gown designed with a full net over satin skirt topped by a lace jacket which buttoned with matched buttons from the Peter Pan collar. Added skirt interest was achieved by a wide lace insert that incircled it to come to a peak at the bottom of the skirt in the back. The filmy veil was held by a satin and lace cap with orange blossoms tucked under the edge. Red roses and white carnations made up her bridal bouquet.

Maid of honor was Karlee Atwood in a mauve gown with Joanne Brandley and Carolyn Layton in green and pink with each girl carrying a basket of mixed flowers. Diane Brandley, Sherry Steed and Debby Steed were the little flower girls all dressed in yellow, also carrying baskets of flowers.

The groom's attendants were Peter Brandley and Lane Atwood.

The many guests who called to offer their best wishes to the happy young couple were greeted at the door by Mr. and Mrs. Jay Atwood and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Brandley while Mrs. Elsie Mitchell presided at the guest book. The gifts were arranged by Pat Meeks, Vivian Fawns, Carma, Virginia, Kate Paxman and Edith Weinheimer. After greeting the bridal party they were met by Mr. and Mrs. Don Steed at the entrance to the luncheon lounge where they were shown to tables by Mona and Geraldine Palmer. This portion of the hall was separated by a dainty lattice work of streamers. Lovely music was played by Kay Stone as the guests were served by David Dahl, Gordon Snow, Gordon Cooper, Rulon Litchfield, Ken Milner and Dick Heninger who wore white shirts and black ties.

Loren Mendenhall was the able Master of Ceremonies for the interesting program which consisted of musicals and readings.

Before leaving on their honeymoon to Spokane through British Columbia, Mrs. Brandley donned a rose-mauve suit with pale beige and blue accessories. Her corsage was of white carnations.

The young couple will be making their home on the Brandley farm.

Pauline Kindt, Swimming Fatality, Is Laid To Rest

A large crowd of friends and neighbors gathered with the Kindt family to pay their last respects to twelve year old Pauline who lost her life in a tragic drowning accident. The service was under the direction of Bishop Wm. Jensen, with the Second Ward Choir supplying the music conducted by Gen Hawkins. Dora Oler accompanied at the organ.

After the opening song, "Dear To The Heart of The Shepherd", Don Rodeback offered the invocation followed by remarks by Bishop Jensen. "Your Sweet Little Rosebud Has Left You" was sung by Jeanine Jensen and Herb Bishop after which D. A. Bennett spoke, bringing out, as did each of the speakers, her sunny and happy disposition and eagerness to work in her church. The trio, Laura Watson, Gen Hawkins, and Jeanine Jensen then rendered "O Dry Those Tears" followed by a short talk by Bishop Orvin Hicken. S. B. Smith pronounced the benediction after the choir number "Sometime We'll Understand".

Pallbearers were Roy and George Kindt, Alan Larson, Dick Coppieters, Ronald Sudo, and Blair Jensen with Kenneth Oler and Ron Sudo as honorary pallbearers. The grave was dedicated by President Palmer.

Pauline, who was lighthearted though conscientious, was very active in most sports, soft ball, volley, skating and most anything that had a lot of activity and excitement, will be missed greatly by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Kindt, four sisters, Doreen, Marolyn, Kathy and Betty; and one brother, Bobby; her grandparents Mr. and Mrs. Al Jensen, Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kindt and great-grandparents Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Critchfield of Magrath, as well as her many friends. She was in her first year of Bee Hive work in Mutual and working hard towards her Queen Bee Award which meant so much to her that twice she had forgone trips to Waterton rather than miss Church.

A near capacity crowd recently attended a fresh air novel program at the Opera House which featured an all-Hawaiian troupe. The evening was sponsored by the Taylor Stake MIA with all proceeds to be used for the Girl's Home in Waterton. The various dances of the Islands and the beautiful music made the evening a decided success. Highlights of the evening was the presentation of lei to the Stake Presiding and others in the audience. The kiss that accompanied each lei caused some merriment.

Bride's Father Performs Wedding Ceremony For Mary Snow And John Mehew

At a quiet home wedding, Mary, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Golden Snow, recently became the bride of John Micheal, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Mehew of Welling. The ceremony was performed by the bride's father.

A lovely dusty rose taffeta frock was chosen by the bride who carried a bouquet of white peonies and red roses. Her attendant, Evelyn Heggie wore blue taffeta while the mothers of the principals had afternoon frocks of blue, and grey.

The best man was Louis Schummers.

About fifty relatives gathered after the ceremony to congratulate the young couple and honor them at a wedding supper.

The young couple are making their home on the Mehew farm after a honeymoon at Banff.

It has been a number of years since Mr. and Mrs. Guy Alexander have been back home so a lot of time had to be made up for during their two week visit in town with the C. R. Wings, and Albert Bradleys of Stirling as well as other relatives and friends. Mr. and Mrs. Alexander are from Wilmington, Delaware.

Barbara Anderson And Gordon Snow Wed In Alberta Temple

Pres. Willard Smith performed the ceremony that united in marriage Barbara Anderson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Angus Anderson of Tyrells Lake, and Gordon Snow, in the Alberta Temple on Wednesday.

A gown featuring a lace bolero and a three quarter length lace overskirt under which was a full net skirt, was worn by the bride who also chose a finger tip veil which misted from a matching coronet. Her bouquet was of red and pink roses and white peonies.

Her attendants were Judy Anderson and Mary Mehew who wore pink and blue net gowns respectively, and carried nosegays of carnations and roses. The groom's attendants were Bill Nemeth and Gordon Anderson, his new brother-in-law. Rose corsages of pink and red completed the aqua nylon and navy taffeta frocks worn by Mrs. Snow and Mrs. Anderson for the occasion.

A short program with Mary Mehew, Mary Hamling, Lola and Sylvia Erickson participating, was enjoyed while the bridal party were served, after which the Toast was proposed by Howard Hamling.

Many friends from Raymond, Tyrells Lake and other southern Alberta towns called during the evening to extend their best wishes to the happy young couple who later spent a honeymoon across the line.

They will be making their home on the Snow farm.

Mrs. Gertrude Hudson and daughters Mary and Maureen are visiting her parents Mr. and Mrs. Junius Anderson for the summer.

Ladies Needed To Help Supervise Swimming Pool

Mrs. Martha Wolley has been appointed by the Town Council to organize a Citizen Committee of mother to assist the lifeguard in preventing any further accidents at the swimming pool. However to date she has not been able to get the co-operation necessary to carry on a program of supervision during the afternoons. Surely every mother or father would feel more relaxed if they knew that there was another person at the pool to keep an eye on their children; particularly the younger who are easily knocked over in excitement of splashing in the water on a hot day. The lifeguard is doing the best he can, but it is hard to keep track of sixty or seventy youngsters at the same time.

If each of the mothers who have children at the pool could manage to volunteer one or two, two hour shifts, it wouldn't work too great a hardship on any one person, and they would feel the glow of satisfaction that comes from helping one's community, which is after all, made up of friends and neighbors. Of course, no one is excluded from opportunity of helping out, whether they have children there or not — everyone's service would be gratefully appreciated.

Unless more volunteers are forthcoming, this project will have to be dropped — so if you possibly can, pick up the phone and let Martha Wolley know when you can work a shift into your busy schedule.

Thanks goes to Velma Redd, Dorothy Nielson, Irene Jensen, and Dora King who worked with her last week; lets keep the ball rolling.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin King entertained at a party on Tuesday for Mr. and Mrs. Louis King and Mr. and Mrs. Bruce King which was enjoyed by the Rayo Woolfes, Mrs. Edith Heninger, Mrs. Gladys King and the L.D. Kings.

Rotarians To Sponsor Swim and Stage Show

The Rotary Club of Raymond is happy to be able to sponsor a very fine Swim and Stage show at the local pool on Monday, July 26, at 2:30 in the afternoon and 8:30 in the evening. All proceeds from this event will be for the Dee Kenney Fund.

The show, which has 15 acts, is a all-Canadian production with almost all of the performers native Albertans. Star of the program is Ken McKenna, who, during the school year, is a teacher at Crescent Heights High School in Calgary. He has a Bachelor of Science degree in Physical Education and a MA in Education so he is well qualified to teach the young people in the art of swimming, diving and trampolining work, which he does at the afternoon show. Ken has placed in National and AAU meets in diving and trampolining work and has as his specialty on the latter a backward flip with a double twist. It may sound as though Ken is a good program all by himself — and he is — but there are many more performers to delight both young and old in this two hour program filled with fun and laughter as well as spectacular beauty.

The Nicholson Twins, Freda and Fred, really are twins and have appeared on T.V. programs in Los Angeles and have been dancing for ten years of their nineteen years. Fred is Alberta champion in the Highland Fling and Sailors Hornpipe Classes and when he combines talents with Freda to tap dance on roller skates and do their upside down routines you'll be seeing real something.

The Cole Sisters, who really are sisters are both masters of the baton and will thrill you with the double lighted twirling batons and flaming batons. For an exhibition of dexterity and precision Evelyn and Shirley do a synchronized routine that is a high light of the show.

A touch of humor is added to the evening by the Three Tiers who also demonstrate remarkable balance in their three man stand and other feats.

Does Honolulu hold a fascination for you? Well if you can't go do the next best thing and come see "Hawaii Hula-Hula" performed by the dusky maidens and bronzed islanders right on your own doorstep.

All these acts and many more, including the daring Fire Dive by the Human Torch will fill your afternoon or evening (or both) with solid entertainment. Support the good work of the Rotary Club and others interested in the Dee Kenney Fund by enjoying yourself at the Swim and Stage Show at the swimming pool on Monday, July 26; — the stage and the bleachers are just part of the equipment brought by the troupe as are the colored lights that add so much to the evening performance.

Three deer were seen just outside of Wilson Siding by Dennis Minion while on his way to work in Coaldale on Tuesday. It is believed the buck and two doe had wandered out from the ridge.

What may have been the same deer were seen by Clarence Allred and one of his helpers the next day when they drove up to the yard at Clarence's farm. They were all in good shape and the idea of having them stick around till the hunting season opened was in the mind of not only a few. Would be something — shooting a good fat buck within walking distance of home.

Handicraft Show To Be Enlarged Next Year

In our story about the Stampede we omitted one important feature — the Art and Handicraft Show which was held at the Town Hall. This display, under the direction of Father Marlan, was waited by quite a number of people who were impressed by the exhibits made by people of the various European countries and Canada. It is hoped to make this feature even bigger and better next year.

Lucky winner of the Aluminum ware set at the draw at the Capitol Theatre here recently was Mrs. Charlie Hippard with Alice Powelson, Gene Garner, Roy Kitagawa and Carol Hervey winning the knife sets.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Harker enjoyed a few days in Calgary last week at the Stampede.

Last Respects Paid To Mrs. Leona Johnson, Former Resident

One of Raymond's long time residents who moved to Yak B.C. about five years ago, came home for the last time to be honored by a large number of her friends and relatives. Mrs. Leona Johnson passed away in a Cranbrook hospital after three months of hospitalization.

The service was conducted by Bishop Snow with Roi Stone leading the choir and Velma Redd at the organ for the first number "Come Let Us Anew" after which Patriarch Mendenhall offered the opening prayer. Clarence Allred, who was the first speaker, referred to many years he had known the deceased and spoke as a close friend to the family, following this Jeanine Jensen sang "The Old Rugged Cross" after which Beth Walker rendered an organ solo — "Beyond The Sunset". Words of comfort and consolation on the Resurrection was given by Bishop Snow who was followed by Joe McLean who sang "Going Home". The concluding speaker was a mission ary companion of Alton's who spoke of his association with Mrs. Johnson's son, and the fine work he was doing a job of which she could well be proud. "Sometimes We'll Understand" was sung by the choir prior to the ben ediction offered by W. C. Stone.

Pallbearers were her six brothers, Nephi and Alfred of Cranbrook, Joseph of Yak, Glen of Cardston and Clarence of Salt Lake and Art Atwood of Raymond. The grave was dedicated by Bishop Orvin Hicken.

Also left to mourn her passing at the age of 51, are her husband Oscar, and six sons, Warren of Lethbridge, Alton, filling a mission in Saskatchewan, Jesse at Cardston and Alfred Glen and Charles at Cranbrook, another brother Irvan and sister Laura Pinchack of Cranbrook, Alice Still of Raymond and her mother Mrs. Angas Atwood of Cardston, all of whom were present for the funeral. Another sister, Florence of Fort St. B. C. was unable to be here, as well as five grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnson lived for twenty five years on their farm on the Ridge before leaving to farm in B.C. During their residence here she was active in Primary work, though living so far from town much of her time was spent doing embroidery at which she was very skilled as she was, at doing free hand drawings. Another talent for which she was well known was her ability to compose poems, which were always decorated with artistry, before given away.
